

Table of contents

Chapter 1 — Page 1

Early History of the Catholic Parishes and Missions of Florida

Before Menéndez

Father Varela

Chapter 2 — Page 22

The Diocese of St. Augustine

The Builder Bishop

Chapter 3 — Page 26

The Archdiocese of Miami

St. Mary Cathedral

Gesu Church

St. Mary Star of the Sea

National Shrine of Our Lady of Charity

St. John Vianney Seminary

Pedro Pan and Monsignor Bryan O. Walsh

Activities of the Laity

Chapter 4 — Page 33

The Diocese of St. Petersburg

Chapter 5 — Page 35

The Diocese of Orlando

Chapter 6 — Page 37

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee

Chapter 7 — Page 39

The Diocese of Palm Beach

Chapter 8 — Page 42

The Diocese of Venice

America's first pastor, Father Francisco López de Mendoza Grajales, raises arms of blessing over Florida on September 8, 1565. This landing scene also depicts, kneeling, the Spanish expedition leader Pedro Menéndez de Avilés, founder of St. Augustine. Oil painting by Stanley Meltzoff, historical artist of the National Geographic magazine.

Chapter 9 — Page 44

Places to Visit on the Heritage Trail

Chapter 10 — Page 46

Irish-Born Clergy in Modern Florida

Chapter 11 — Page 48

Major Religious Orders of Men in Modern Florida History

Chapter 12 — Page 50

Spanish-American Work of Priestly Cooperation

Chapter 13 — Page 52

Religious Communities of Women in the Dioceses of Florida

Chapter 14 — Page 56

The Florida Council of Catholic Women

Chapter 15 — Page 60

Leona H. Cooper and M. Athalie Range

Chapter 16 — Page 62

History of the Florida State Council of the Knights of Columbus

Chapter 17 — Page 64

Florida Catholic Conference

Chapter 18 — Page 65

Ancient Order of Hibernians

Chapter 19 — Page 66

Acknowledgements

Chapter 20 — Page 68

Recommended Further Readings on the History of the Catholic Church in Florida